BOSTON WATERCOLOR SOCIETY

Organized in 1885 for the Advancement of Aesthetic Watercolor Craftsmanship
162 Newbury Street, Boston, MA 02116

Dear Friend:

The 5th North American Open Show of 1996 was a huge success with the display of 97 watercolors from some of the finest painters in the country. We are preparing for the 6th North American Open Show to be held in June and July of 1998 at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, one of the most beautiful exhibition galleries in New England. To make this the best watercolor show ever we need your generous support. Please review the categories below to see the many benefits that come from your contribution, including an acknowledgement of your donation in the handsome color catalog that accompanies this show.

$50-$100 DONOR. You will receive the NEWS newsletters and invitations to all show receptions and demonstrations.

$100-$200 BENEFATOR. You will receive the above and an invitation to the NEWS Annual Meeting Lecture held in March.

$200 & UP AWARD SPONSOR. Includes all of the above plus an award to be given to a top painting in the show designated in the name of your choice. Please indicate how you would like the title to appear in the catalog _____

STATEMENT FROM THE PRESIDENT OF NEWS FOR THE 1996 NORTH AMERICAN OPEN SHOW

Welcome to the 1996 North American Open Show of the New England Watercolor Society! This wonderful exhibition of watercolors is truly a celebration of watercolor painting. It represents the finest work done by 97 artists from 21 states in North America.

By presenting this important body of work the New England Watercolor Society becomes instrumental in the growth and direction of American watercolor. Each of our shows is a legacy to the education of the watercolor media to the general public and future generations. This show is no exception. Congratulations to all those artist's whose paintings have been chosen for this unique exhibition.

I wish to express sincere appreciation to all the volunteers who gave their precious time to produce this fine show. Particular thanks goes to the Federal Reserve Bank for hosting NEWS in their most beautiful building.

Sincerely,

Thomas Rebek,
President of NEWS

JUROR OF SELECTION

Doug Pasek, NWS, AWS is a painter, illustrator, designer and art director, residing in Ohio. His paintings are semi-abstract, refined, subtle and quiet. He has been a juror for regional and national shows and this year his work has been selected for many juried exhibitions throughout the U.S.

JUROR'S COMMENT: "I commend The New England Watercolor Society and the submitting artists for the high quality level the North American Open Show has reached. It gave me the opportunity and responsibility to select a strong and varied exhibition. Although there were fewer abstract entries, there were many strong abstracts found in the realistic realm.

Certainly, the standard criteria of drawing, design, color, values, etc. is vital, but the real job is to personally connect with the art and the artist. Therefore, the quality of the art is primary. Each piece in this exhibition has made that connection and I hope each viewer will sense this also. From realistic to stylized to abstract to primitive. As the juror of an exhibition evaluates the art, the art in turn evaluates the juror."

JUROR OF AWARDS

Pat San Soucie, AWS, is a painter and teacher residing in New Jersey. Her popular workshops encourage students to create a rich textural personal statement. Her paintings have won many awards throughout the country. Most recently, the Millard Sheets Memorial Medal at the AWS 1995 show.

JUROR'S COMMENT: "Congratulations to the national exhibitors. 1996. This is a fine show, one that reflects the excellence of all efforts: painters, show organizers and the NEWS members and supporters.

There is a midwestern university that attributes educational processes to the 'sifting and winnowing' of information. A juror faces a strong array of visual information, needing careful 'sifting and winnowing' to select the outstanding award winners. With the standards of excellence in this show, the task gave me a lot of perplexity, but a reasonable resolution did come forth. Kudos to the listed award choices.

I will remember the other fine paintings as well, for a long time, because of all they contribute to the show."
